

NILE RIVER FESTIVAL 2019 – INFORMATION FOR COMPETITORS

January 24th to 27th 2019

- All competitors, regardless of how many events you are doing, must register during the registration time frame on Thursday January 24th (2:30pm to 4:30pm or 8pm to 9pm). No registrations will be taken after this time. If you have a good reason why you cannot make the registration, please let us know Thursday afternoon latest.
- Registration will also be taking place at Adrift, Nalubale and NREs rafting bases in the week prior to the event for their employees only.
- All competitors must be at the event briefing at the NRE campsite 4.45pm Thursday January 24th.
- The big air ramp and SUP jousting is just for fun and prizes only, it does not count towards the overall event champion titles.
- The Itanda extreme race, Cuban big air, friday freestyle and Ugandan championship events all count toward the overall event champion titles to establish the king and queen of the Nile!
- Playboats only to a max length of 220cm (equivalent to a Jackson Kayak 4 Fun), and you must use the same kayak throughout.
- You can only do the Itanda Race if the event organisers know you're up to it or you provide video evidence/solid referees, their decision is final. This is not a suitable time to run Itanda for the first time.
- Please read the full rules – <http://kayakthenile.com/nile-river-festival-2019/>
- “Pirates Code” for the entire festival, if you're not there, you get left behind! The schedule is subject to change and may change at short notice! Please stay in touch with what's happening and do your part to help the event stay ontime.
